

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

BLANKS.

We have just printed, and shall keep constantly on hand, justly called "Gambler's and Lawyer's" Blanks, gotten up in the most approved style, and printed on a good quality of paper.

NATHAN ALDRICH, Esq., is our authorized agent at Edwardburgh, to procure subscriptions, advertisements, &c.

"We would call the attention of those interested in the County Agricultural Society, to the notice of the Secretary in another column of the paper."

DROWNED.—We learn that a child, about five years old, son of Fred Heidrich, of this village, was drowned by falling into the creek, back of the brewery, on Friday last.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. Ann E. Smith has just returned from the east with a large supply of new and fashionable millinery goods. Mrs. S. requests us to say to those ladies who have not yet purchased their Summer Bonnets, that they would do well to call and take a look at the beautiful styles which she has just received, and which she is offering at a trifle above cost.

Mr. A. N. Alward has placed upon our table Harper's Weekly, Waverley Magazine, and the Weekly Novels, for the ensuing week, all of which may be found at the bookstore, together with all the other late publications of the day. Harper's Weekly is a fine number, containing two half sheet engravings: Battle of Monmouth, and the Attack on Fort Mifflin.

THE PRINTER.—We have received No. 2 of this new paper. It is an imperial quarto form, of twenty-four pages, three columns to the page, and printed on the finest of paper. The present number contains articles on the History of Printing—The Progress of Printing—The Printing Office—A History of the Printing Press—The Art of the Printer—The Printing Trade, &c. We are much pleased with the plan of the paper, are confident of its success, and give it our cordial approval. The style of getting it up, accompanied, as it will be, by numerous elegant illustrations, will make it an attractive ornament upon the drawing room table. It is published monthly by Henry & Huntington, New York, at one dollar.

About sixty members of the Canadian Parliament paid a visit to Detroit on Saturday last. They were accompanied by the Mayor and Common Council of the City, at the Michigan Exchange, in good style. On Sunday they visited Malden. Mr. R. N. Rice, Sup't of the Michigan Central Railroad, with his usual generosity and kindness, sent an invitation to the M. P.'s to take a trip over the road to Chicago. But on account of the pendency of important business before the Canadian Parliament, they were compelled to decline the offer. They passed the day pleasantly, and we trust they left on Monday morning with more favorable impressions in regard to the "City of the Straits."

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—This valuable publication for July, has reached us from the Publishers, and is one of the best numbers ever issued. The table of contents presents the following variety of contributions: The Catamounts of Rome; Three of us; What a Wretched Woman said; How it was Settled; A Peculiar Illness; November—April; The Jancho; Mademoiselle's Campaign; The Swan Song of Parson Avery; The Demolish Palace; Myrtle Flowers; Chesapeake; The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table; The American Trust Society; Note to the Catamounts of Rome; Literary Notices. Published by Phillips, Sampson & Co., New York, at $1.

THE CELEBRATION.—Another meeting was held on Tuesday evening last, to make further arrangements in regard to the celebration of the Fourth. A Committee of Arrangements were appointed, and it was decided to hold the celebration on the third. We understand that invitations will be sent to the various Civil Lodges in the County to be present on the occasion. We are pleased to learn that Hon. Henry Waldron has accepted the invitation from the committee to deliver an oration on the occasion.

It may now be set down as a fixed fact that we are to have a celebration, and we trust a good one. The knowledge of the order of the day should have been sufficient to draw out a large crowd. We hope to be able to lay before our readers next week the order of exercises, &c.

AWFUL CALAMITY—TWO PERSONS DECEASED.—We learn from a private source, that the house of Mr. Jones, in the town of Newburgh, some 12 miles east of Cassopolis, in this County, was burned to the ground on Friday night of last week, together with its inmates, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, an aged couple, who were asleep at the time of the catastrophe. We understand that the fire originated from an ash pan, which must have contained a candle.

Mr. Jones was the father of Mr. Edwin H. Jones, the present Supervisor of the township of Newburgh, who resided with him, but was absent at the time of the catastrophe, and did not return until the next day, and we understand that he did not learn the painful fact of the death of his father and mother until he was in the city of Chicago. Mr. J. was just building a new brick building by the side of the old one, which took place in the roof, and suffered damage to the amount of about $200.

A PROPOSED PIC-NIC.—We clip the following from the Niles Expedition of the 10th inst.: "It is proposed to have a picnic here, at the school of the Union School, and all the Sabbath School children in the town and surrounding country, all at Buchanan, Dowagiac, Deatur, Paw Paw, and all along the line from Buchanan to Kalamazoo, have a grand excursion and picnic to Kalamazoo, on Saturday, the 10th of July next, and that they there meet the children of Marshall, Battle Creek, and other places west of Marshall, and the children of the Union School, and the Central road under these circumstances would be paid to such a low price that all parents, teachers and children can afford to go on the excursion. There will be a meeting on Sunday afternoon next at 5 o'clock, at the Methodist Church, to make suitable arrangements for the Convention, committees appointed, &c."

CASSAPOLIS, June 21st, 1858.

Messrs. JONES & CAMPBELL: At the Circuit Court, held in this village last week, the following persons were tried and convicted:

Nathan Bush, convicted of larceny and malicious mischief, and fined one hundred dollars.
Edward Williams, convicted of an assault and battery, in which he hit off a man's nose. Fined one hundred dollars and required to keep the peace, and in default thereof to remain in jail one year.
A. P. Lane, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to State prison three years.
Charles Hamilton, convicted of burglary. Sentenced four years.
Albert Sanders, convicted of grand larceny. Sent to the House of Correction until he shall be twenty-one, which will be over six years.

P. S. It might be interesting to a number of readers to know when Courts are held in this County. The regular terms commence the second Mondays of March, June, September and December.

A French paper states that by an accident charcoal has been discovered to be a cure for burns. By laying a piece of charcoal upon the burn, the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour, the wound is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

A new counterfeit bank note is described as having for its vignette "a female with a rake in her lap."
